Costa del Sol, La Zagaleta

Situated in a privileged position within the Costa del Sol's most prestigious and luxurious residential neighbourhood, La Zagaleta, this is a truly unique property. Zagaleta represents the pinnacle of luxury living combining top tier services and facilities with pristine natural surroundings. The property itself is located at the very edge of the resort offering some of the best panoramic views and privacy available. The plot is much larger than the standard offering an incredible sense of integration with the surrounding Andalusian landscape. At the end of a dead-end street, the property is accessed by an impressive private driveway coming down to a parking area in front of a three car garage and the beautifully landscaped front garden with water feature.
